

Two Fair Mares Introduces “The Neigh Station”: First Ever Activity Center for Horses
The Neigh Station will be sold for a suggested retail price of $87.95 USD, and the toy riders will be $28.95 USD each.

The Neigh Station and toy riders will be available online and at local tack stores starting in January 2012.

- Shatterproof mirror, which is designed to provide visual contact for horses that are separated from their stable mates
- Sliding latch with clicking sound that is fun for any curious horse and provides needed oral stimulation, which may prevent cribbing and chewing
- Rope with detachable rider toys—available in a Western or English model—which encourages play
